

Beirut, Tripoli Fights Go On

Battles Rage Into Morning Hours In Test of Defenses

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Pitched battles raged into the morning hours in Beirut and Tripoli today. With the sun came a brief spell of Moslem holiday calm, then sporadic shooting broke out in the capital.

Furious fighting between government forces and rebels in the capital shattered the darkness. For a time it appeared the expected all-out rebel offensive had begun, but more likely both sides were testing the other's night defenses. For the moment, however, there were no major clashes.

Will Not Take Jury to Spot Of Slaying

Varner Trial Nears Jury; Berry to Call No More Witnesses

CALIFORNIA, Mo. (AP)—The defense today lost a demand that the jury in Tex Varner's second trial for murder be taken to the spot where his business rival and a young helper were slain a year ago.

Will F. Berry Jr., Varner's chief defense counsel, announced after the rebuff he would call no witnesses and the trial moved toward the final argument stage after three days of testimony.

It may go to the jury late today. Circuit Judge Claude C. Curtis agreed with the prosecution's contention there was no justification for taking the jury on an 80-mile roundtrip into the Lake of the Ozarks Country.

The defense made its demand after the state finished presenting its intricate chain of circumstantial evidence against Varner.

The 50-year-old riding ranch and rodeo operator is on trial this time for the slaying of 15-year-old Larry Dale Irwin, summertime stable boy at the Roberts Riding Ranch in Lake of the Ozarks State Park.

Varner was acquitted in April when he was tried for the murder of Edwin Boyens, 47-year-old boss of the Robert ranch.

The second trial was brought to Monticue County when Varner contended he could not get a fair hearing in his home county.

Young Irwin and Boyens were slain from ambush in a field on the huge ranch Varner established after he lost the horseback riding concession in the state park in 1956. It is at the junction of U. S. 54 and Missouri 42 between Osage Beach and Lake Ozark, Mo.

Ceremony Opens Lot At Third and Osage

The new city-built parking lot on the corner of Third and Osage was formally opened for public use this morning at 10 o'clock.

Present for the ceremony were Mayor Abe Silverman; Bob Wall, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce retail merchants division; Joe Fouchen, city traffic engineer; Jim G. Diller of the Nagee-Hale Park-Meter Co.; Lee Estopp, installation engineer of the company; Harry Naugel, chairman of the parking lots committee; Philip McLaughlin, a member of the parking lots committee; Jack Couts, assistant chief of police; and Del Heckart, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Bob Wall introduced Mayor Silverman, who gave a short talk expressing his pleasure with the forward step which Sedalia has taken by building the new parking lot.

The mayor then cut the ribbon and thus opened the new lot for public use. Parking will be free in the lot Friday and Saturday.

Hutcheson Is Mum Before Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Maurice A. Hutcheson of the Carpenters Union refused today to tell the Senate Rackets Committee whether Max Raddock had performed illegal acts in his behalf.

Hutcheson also refused to answer many similar questions. He stood by his position even when questioners stressed they were asking about matters wholly unrelated to the Indiana highway scandals.

His lawyer had challenged the committee's authority to quiz him about an alleged plot to fix a grand jury dealing with the highway affair. Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) promptly overruled that challenge.

Compromise Tax Bill Sent on to President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today passed and sent to President Eisenhower a compromise tax bill repealing half a billion dollars a year in tax surcharges on freight transportation costs.

The bill averts a drop of $2-115,000,000 in federal revenues due July 1 by extending for another year Korean War increases in the corporate income tax rate and other excises on new automobiles, car accessories, liquor and cigarettes.

The House completed congressional action on the tax compromise in spite of renewed grumbling over the fact congress has not cut other excises, particularly the 10 per cent federal tax on rail, bus and airline tickets.

Committee Cuts Aid Money Bill

Slashes 872 Million Dollars From Sum Asked by President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today cut 872 million dollars from the $3,950,092,500 requested by President Eisenhower for foreign aid in the year starting next Tuesday.

This is 597½ million less than Congress has proposed in a separate bill authorizing continuance of the aid program.

The committee exceeded by 115 million the cut recommended by a subcommittee headed by Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La.).

The 115 million was taken from the development loan fund on Passman's motion at the full committee meeting. The vote was 26-18.

The committee's recommendations would leave the aid program with $3,078,092,500 in new appropriations.

The recommendations, which totaled $242,717,500 less than was voted for the program this year, would leave the aid program with $3,193,092,500 in new money for fiscal 1959. The House will act on the appropriations bill next week.

The total was $357,717,500 less than was voted for the program this year.

Added to unobligated carryover funds from previous appropriations, the program would have new obligatory authority of $4,142,000,000.

The committee refrained from sharp criticism of the program in a report written by Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La.).

Passman, chairman of a subcommittee that handled the bill, told reporters the amount approved was adequate and blasted what he called the wasters and the spenders for an unprecedented pressure campaign to obtain more money.

The committee's cuts were in funds for military assistance, defense support, the development loan fund, a special contingency fund, and special assistance funds.

Military assistance covers weapons, equipment, training in their use, and supplies and services for friendly nations.

Defense support is economic help designed to aid such nations in maintaining adequate forces for defense of the free world.

Augmenting direct military aid, it goes to Spain, Greece, Iran, Turkey, Pakistan, Cambodia, South Korea, Laos, the Philippines, Formosa, Thailand and Viet Nam.

The development loan fund provides easy-term loans for friendly nations to develop their own resources.

John Fox States Goldfine Declared He Bought Sherman Adams House

He Also Quotes Millionaire As Saying He Sent Checks

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Fox today quoted Bernard Goldfine as saying that he had bought a house for Sherman Adams in Washington and had sent checks to Adams over a long period of years.

Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide, promptly denied the story about the house in a letter read at a stormy session of the House Investigating subcommittee headed by Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark).

Fox did not specify the period when he said the checks may have gone from Goldfine, a millionaire Boston industrialist, to Adams. But Fox indicated it was before Adams came to Washington with Eisenhower in 1953.

In the midst of the storm blown up by Fox's sensational charges, the subcommittee recessed until Monday.

Among other testimony before the recess, Fox told the congress members that he got a $500,000 loan from Joseph P. Kennedy, Boston multimillionaire and former U.S. ambassador to Great Britain, after supporting Kennedy's son John in his successful 1952 Senate race.

Fox, former publisher of the Boston Post, said he got the loan for his now defunct newspaper and has repaid it.

The letter in which Adams denied Goldfine had bought him a house was produced by Rep. Joseph P. O'Hara of Minnesota, top Republican on the subcommittee, after Fox quoted Goldfine as saying he bought the house.

O'Hara disclosed he had written Adams Thursday, asking about this, after learning that Fox had made such a statement to committee investigators.

Adams' letter said nothing about the checks that Fox quoted Goldfine as saying had gone to Adams. O'Hara had not asked Adams about that.

Adams did dispute another statement that had come up in Fox's testimony Thursday. Adams said he had never held an interest in any Goldfine business.

Chairman Harris was asked by reporters whether the committee has any evidence tending to prove or disprove Fox's testimony about the house.

"I prefer," he replied, "not to make any statement as to what we do or do not have."

The chairman declined also to characterize the testimony of Fox.

Thursday, Fox asserted that Goldfine had once told him that Adams had interests in Goldfine textile mills, and that Goldfine said he didn't have to worry about federal regulatory agencies so long as Adams held his White House post.

That brought angry denials from Adams and Goldfine.

And the White House said in effect today that President Eisenhower is convinced Fox was not telling the truth.

"Falsehood No. 1: Mr. Fox quoted Mr. Bernard Goldfine as saying Mr. Goldfine had bought a house for Sherman Adams in Washington."

"Mr. Adams has rented two houses since he has been living in Washington."

"Both of those houses were rented by Mr. Adams. A simple check by the members of the committee or by you gentlemen of the press at the office of the register of deeds in Washington will prove the ownership of those houses."

"Falsehood No. 2: Mr. Fox said Mr. Goldfine had sent checks to Mr. Adams over a long period of time."

"This is absolutely false and no such thing ever occurred at any time."

In connection with Fox's testimony about houses brought to Adams, a reporter asked Hagerty whether Fox might have been talking about houses in which Adams himself has not lived.

"That is ridiculous," Hagerty said, adding that the only house Adams owns is his residence at Lincoln, N. H.

In response to a question, Hagerty said President Eisenhower "knows just in general of these falsehoods."

Communist Hungary Refuses UN Any Data On Recent Executions

BUDAPEST (AP)—Communist Hungary refused today to answer a U.N. request for information on the recent executions of former Premier Imre Nagy and three other leaders of the Hungarian revolt.

Government spokesman Laszlo Gyaros said no information would be given a five-nation U.N. committee which appealed last Saturday for any information U.N. members might have on the executions.

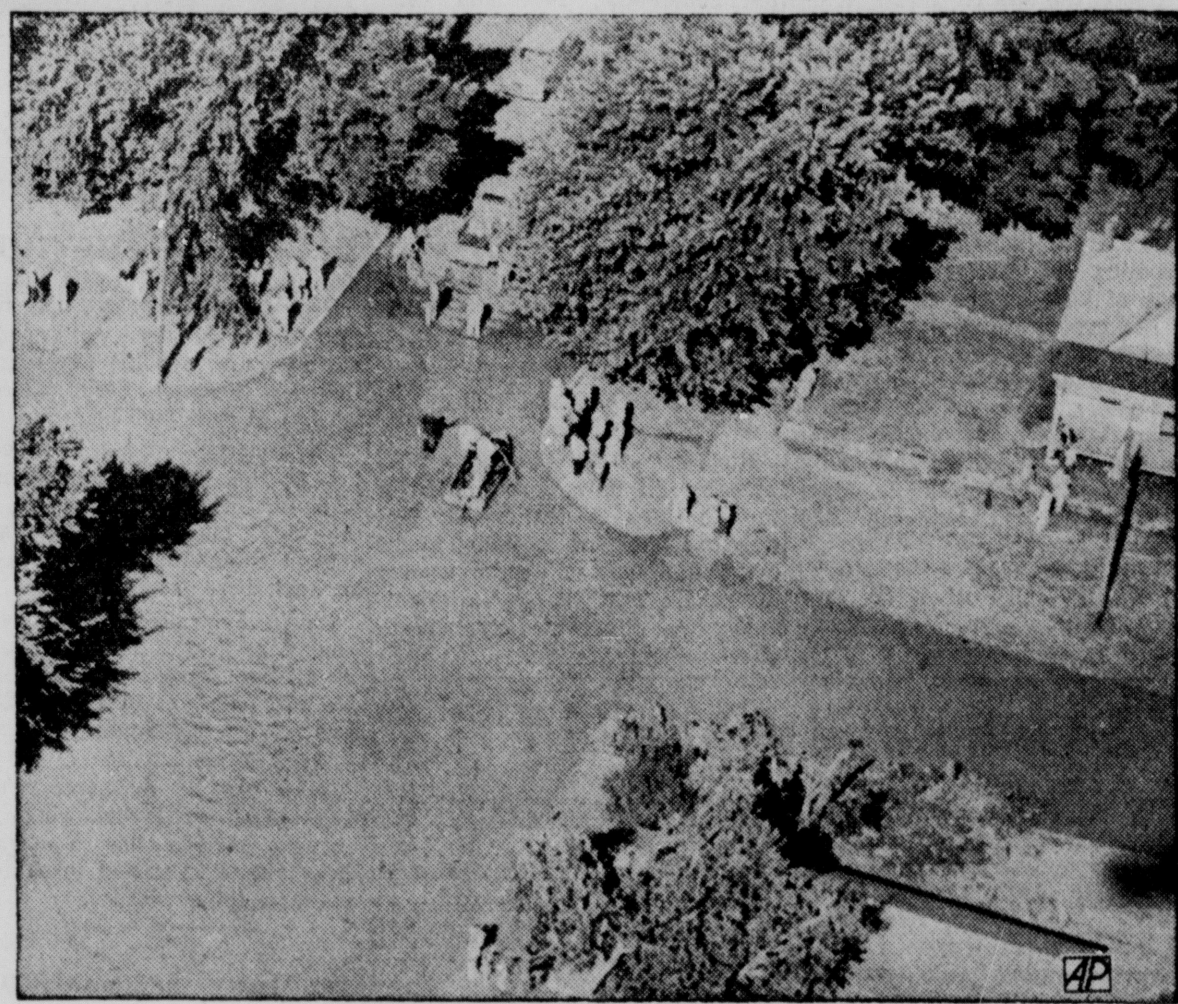

The Hungarian Ministry of Justice announced June 17 that Nagy, Gen. Pal Maleter and two journalists had been executed.

The U.N. committee said the four "were secretly sent to death in defiance of the judgment and opinion of the United Nations" and in violation of solemn pledge they would not be harmed.

5 Hour, 22 Minute Flight

Jet Tanker Flies to London In Record-Breaking Time

BRIZE NORTON AIR BASE, England (AP)—A U.S. Air Force jet tanker set down at this Oxfordshire air base today after making the fastest-ever New York to London transatlantic flight.

Its time for the 3,337-mile flight: 5 hours 22 minutes 29.68 seconds.

It was followed by a second huge KC135 Stratotanker which also flashed over London in faster time than any previous mark for the route.

The tankers had planned to take off on a London to New York record attempt after a brief stopover here. This plan was abandoned because a third tanker in the flight crashed early today as it was taking off from Westover Air Force Base in Massachusetts, killing 15 persons.

The Pentagon in Washington said the first tanker was clocked over New York at 12:29:37.8 EDT, and then over London at 5:52:7.48 EDT.

Average speed was about 644 miles per hour.

The previous New York to London record of 6 hours 16 minutes was set by a Royal Air Force Canberra bomber in August 1955.

Total elapsed time of the first jet tanker was 5 hours 22 minutes 29.68 seconds.

Former AP Newsman Killed in Jet Tanker

BOSTON (AP)—Glenn A. Williams, 41, who was killed last night in the crash of a jet tanker, was a former Associated Press newsman in Missouri.

Williams, an associate editor of U. S. News and World Report, had been a newspaperman for more than 21 years.

Following radio and newspaper stints, Williams joined the Associated Press at Jefferson City, Mo., in November, 1941. Four months later he was transferred to the AP's Kansas City bureau. He was moved to St. Louis in May, 1943, and returned to Jefferson City in January, 1944.

In late 1945, Williams entered the AP Foreign Service, being assigned to the London Bureau. In 1951 he returned to New York to serve on the AP foreign desk. A year later he went with U. S. News and World Report.

Williams was educated in the public schools of Enid, Okla., and at the University of Oklahoma.

Williams was married and the father of a son, Bruce, 14.

Before joining the AP, Williams worked 1½ years as news editor of Radio Station KCRC at Enid, and 2½ years as reporter and assistant city editor of the Enid News and Eagle.

Skies Clear; More Warm Weather Seen

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Clear skies let the sun shine brightly over Missouri today, warming it up after a siege of extremely cool weather for late June.

Highs in the 80's were predicted for today and Saturday, with lows tonight between 55 and 60.

Last night's low reading was 51 at Farmington and West Plains and the minimum ranged no higher than 53.

Forecasters said the fair weather will continue at least through Saturday.

Jet Tanker Crashes; All Aboard Die

Hits High Tension Wires, Explodes; Takeoff Normal

WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass. (AP)—A jet tanker plane attempting a transatlantic speed record crashed and exploded seconds after takeoff early today, killing all 15 aboard.

Observers said the giant KC135 jet tanker hit high tension wires about a mile and a half from its takeoff runway.

The explosion disintegrated the plane into hundreds of pieces, the largest of which was described as no bigger than a chair.

Among the victims were six newsmen who were to cover the flight of four Air Force planes attempting to break records for aircraft speed in crossing the Atlantic in both directions.

Also on board was Brig. Gen. Donald W. Saunders, Athens, N.Y., airborne commander in charge of the operation.

The plane was the third of the four-plane flight to take off. The first two got off on schedule and headed directly for London.

The fourth plane was on the runway ready to take off at the time of the crash. That flight was canceled.

Kazimierz Machowski, 45, on whose property the plane crashed, said: "I heard the plane taking off as I was lying in bed. In a very little while, I heard a terrific explosion. I ran outside and it was brighter than daylight from the burning plane. The heat from the wreckage was so terrific it wasn't possible to get near it. Wreckage was all over the countryside. Nobody could have lived in that crash."

Westover Air Force officials said the plane had made a normal takeoff and was airborne. They added that it broke ground at the exact point of prediction on the runway and appeared to be flying normally.

It skidded across the Massachusetts Turnpike—one of the state's busiest highways—before blowing up with a roar on the Machowski property.

Wreckage was strewn for an estimated three quarters of a mile. Patrolman Richard Haslam, 34, Chicopee, was one of the first on the scene.

"I radioed headquarters," he said, "that there was no need for any ambulances. Nobody on board had a chance."

Second Wife Sues To Set Aside Divorce

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The second wife of the late Bernard Macfadden is suing to have set aside their divorce granted 15 years. The noted physical culturist died nearly three years ago at the age of 87.

Mrs. Mary Macfadden, 65, alleged that Macfadden got the divorce fraudulently by claiming to be a Florida resident when he actually lived in New York.

Fuller Warren, her lawyer, said she was not seeking more money from the estate but was "just trying to clear her name."

You can't help but notice the contrast between how cool it is in Sedalia and how hot it's getting in Washington these days.

Sunday School Lesson Notes:

By William E. Gilroy, D.D.

The Bible has been perhaps the most abused of all books.

And I think most of the abuse has arisen from the failure to recognize the true nature of the Bible and what it has to say about itself. I am sure that the Bible rightly approached and read, is its best interpreter.

The Bible, it ought to be noted, is an Eastern book. It has come out of the Orient, where life and literature, as well as the books of the Bible, have been marked with imagination, figures of speech and colorful stories and allusions.

Those usages are quite at variance with the hard literalism of Western usage, and especially the very hard literalism of all too many utterly prosaic and literal Bible readers.

Another abuse of the Bible arises from the failure to assess the fact that our English Bible is a translated book. This involves the theory of "verbal inspiration," once commonly held but not so widely held today.

That theory has to do with belief in the inspiration of the actual words rather than in the Bible's revelation and teaching.

I was brought up under the influence of that verbal theory. I remember what a shock it was in my early student days when I learned that there was not in existence the original manuscript of a single book of the Bible.

I learned that the oldest manuscripts then known were long after the time of Christ, and that the ancient manuscripts differed enough to rule out the idea of verbal accuracy and identity with the original words as Bible writers had written them.

Actually, I was to learn that these variations were of only slight importance and did not affect in any way the meanings and value of the Bible as the Book of Salvation, and of God's guidance for humans in life.

In fact, I think that in this connection the various versions of the Bible have been greatly overrated.

I have many of these versions by me as I write and despite various wordings, there isn't a single one of these versions that does not offer all man needs for salvation and guidance.

Much of the abuse of the Bible has arisen from neglecting what the Bible itself has to say.

The notion of the Bible as coming from writers who simply held the pen that God moved is in direct contrast with II Peter 2:21: "Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

The Bible came out of human experience. Men had to live it before they could write it. And we in turn must experience and live it if we would find its blessings, its salvation and its power.

The Bible in its many books incorporating strength, beauty, and power does not need man made theories to uphold it.

It needs only to be read and taken into mind and heart for what it is.

Witnesses To Attend Convention

Jehovah's Witnesses from the Sedalia congregation Friday announced plans are under way to attend an international convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in New York City this summer.

Walter H. Meyer, presiding minister of the local group, said the convention could well be the largest in the history of Jehovah's Witnesses. It is scheduled for July 27 through August 3 and will be held in Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds simultaneously. The last international convention, attended by many Sedalia Witnesses, was held in 1953 in Yankee Stadium and reached a peak attendance of 165,000 including the overflow audiences. Watchtower officials, Meyer said, have arranged this year for the program to be held in both places, with most program features repeated at the Polo Grounds immediately following the first presentation in Yankee Stadium.

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, governing agency for Jehovah's Witnesses, has been making special travel arrangements for foreign delegates. Many missionaries who have served in other lands will also be brought to the United States for the Bible convention. Purpose of the gathering is to provide stimulus for the New World Society of Jehovah's Witnesses in Christian association, Bible instruction and ministerial training.

Meyer stated that it is not yet known how many Witnesses from the area will attend, but he added, special travel arrangements are being made by train. He said further that it may be necessary to make limited meeting arrangements or cancel local meetings altogether during convention time.

Chairmen Are Chosen For Christian Church

The department chairmen have been chosen for the new church year which begins July 1 at the First Christian Church. These department chairmen, along with the executive committee of the official board, make up the church cabinet. This group making up the new cabinet, along with the members of the present church cabinet, will meet Monday night, June 30, 7:30 p.m. in the Green Room at the church. Those chosen as new department chairmen are: stewardship, Aaron Haller; property, Robert Weikal; membership, Dr. O. J. Durnell; evangelism, Mrs. Loren Attebury; education, Mrs. Robert Longan; world outreach, Mrs. Ray Conn; and worship, John Harvey, Jr.

The Rev. Harry Purviance, pastor, will have as his sermon topic for Sunday "God Is Real." Services will be held at 8:30 and 10:50 a.m. with church school at 9:40. Special music for the first service will be a solo by Miss Beatrice Haggard, entitled "Hear Our Prayer" by Chenoweth. The Chancel Choir will bring an anthem entitled "Christ of the Upward Way" by Mueller at the second service.

The combined Chapel and Chancel Choirs will practice at 7 p.m. Wednesday. The Chapel Choir will also practice at 8 a.m. Sunday.

Starkey-Green Vows Solemnized In Double Ring Ceremony

At three o'clock Saturday afternoon, May 17, Miss Karen Suzanne Starkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnett L. Starkey, 721 East Fourth, and Earl Wayne Green, son of Mrs. Zona Shipp, 701 1/2 South Ohio, and Dan P. Green, Route 1, were united in marriage at the First Methodist Church with Dr. E. L. Hobbs reading the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of ornamented jade tied with satin bows. A bouquet of lavender and pink spring flowers and silver candelabra adorned the altar.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. M. O. Stevens sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer". She was accompanied by Mrs. Helen Williams who also played other appropriate wedding music.

The candles were lighted by Rosemary and Linda Kellner, Kansas City. They wore identical street length dresses of lavender imported cotton fashioned with very full skirts, scoop necklines and long white cashes. Their head-dress was white and each wore a pink carnation wrist corsage.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of traditional white satin with a snugly fitted basque bodice and long tapering sleeves. The wide neckline was cut with a deep V at the front and back and was outlined with a bertha of hand-cut imported Chantilly lace embroidered with iridescent sequins. The skirt, with a flat front panel, was gathered at the sides and back with the fullness widening into a graceful cathedral train. The bridal headdress was a Queen Anne bonnet of white satin trimmed with pearls to which was fastened her fingertip veil of illusion. She wore a gold bracelet worn by her mother at her wedding and a string of pearls, a gift from her father. Her bouquet of lilies of the valley and an orchid was placed on an heirloom Bible covered with white satin, belonging to her great-grandfather.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Gary Franklin, wore a street length dress of white lace over lavender taffeta with a lavender chiffon drape about the neck which extended down the back to the hemline. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations with lavender streamers. Her headdress was of white lace.

Miss Janet Starkey, a sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a pink organza dress with matching mitts and a pink headband. Her bouquet was a miniature identical to that of the matron of honor.

Gary Franklin was best man with Charles Green, brother of the groom, and Harley Kellner, Kansas City, ushering. The mother of the bride wore a pink cotton knit sheath dress with matching jacket, black accessories, and a corsage of roses. The groom's mother was attired in a beige linen dress with orange accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church dining room. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over lavender. The three tiered cake, topped with a

Miss Kathryn Nolting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nolting of Stover, became the bride of Mr. Warren McCollister, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McCollister, of Magazine, Ark., on June 8, at the First English Lutheran Church at St. Joseph. The Rev. Martin G. Kabele officiated.

Two arrangements of white mums decorated the altar. A candelabra with a large white satin bow holding white tapers were on either side of the altar. Mrs. Cynthia Watson, Excelsior Springs, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love." Gary Floss was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of white chiffon and taffeta with a scoop neckline and a molded bodice. At the back of the full gathered skirt was a draped bow. Her illusion veil fell from a crown seeded with pearls. She carried a white prayer book covered with lace, on which was a white orchid, white ribbon streamers and small flowers.

Miss Dorothy Nolting was maid of honor. Mrs. Hiram Shepp and Miss Elizabeth Nolting were the bridesmaids. They are sisters of the bride and wore ice blue chiffon and taffeta, waltz-length dresses, styled after the bride's dress. They wore blue net hats and carried nosegay of white flowers.

Mr. Emmett McCollister of Kansas City acted as best man. Fred Bisplinghoff of Peoria, Ill., Victor Crothers, Maurice Sheir and Jerry Meinke, all of St. Joseph, were ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the wedding, attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Surgery And The Elderly

Within the past few years, three of the most famous living Americans have undergone surgery—President Eisenhower, the former Presidents Hoover and Truman. The ages of these men ran from 65 to 83. In each case, recovery was complete, and the patient resumed activity within a very short space of time.

This fact is cited in an article by Robert P. Goldman in an issue of Parade. And he uses it to point up the tremendous strides that American medicine has made in the surgical treatment of elderly people. He writes that patients aged 60 to 90 and beyond are undergoing surgery as a routine matter today—something that was virtually unheard of a generation ago. Patients who were refused surgery as bad risks when in their 60's are now being operated on safely in their 70's. And the mortality rate in operations on the aged is as low as 5 per cent, where a generation ago it was several times that figure.

Many medical advances are responsible. A new "light" anesthesia does not affect the lungs and heart. New instruments have eliminated other hazards. A vast increase in nutritional knowledge plays a vital constructive role in both the pre-operative and the post-operative periods. New drugs have all but wiped out pneumonia and other chest disorders.

The significance of this is impossible to exaggerate. We are living far longer than did our ancestors, and our descendants will live longer still. The proportion of senior citizens to the total population rises steadily. That has presented an urgent challenge to American medicine—and the challenge is being met with outstanding, even spectacular, success.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Sometimes 'Denials' Are Not Denials

By DREW PEARSON
WASHINGTON — This column has sometimes referred to James C. Hagerty as the most efficient press relations officer ever to serve in the White House. I stand by that statement and hope it's one that Jim will not deny. Hagerty is the man who first persuaded Ike that he could and should hold press conferences when the newly elected President almost trembled at the idea of meeting with the press. Jim is so efficient that at the San Francisco GOP convention he did everything for newsmen except tuck them in bed every night.

Efficiency, however, is not to be confused with accuracy. Sometimes it best serves Jim's boss for him to be inaccurate. However, people should not throw stones who live in glass houses, and since Hagerty recently charged me with 10 errors in reporting on the Goldfine vicuna gift to Ike, here are 11 of Jim's denials which either turned out not to be denials or else furred up the truth:

Adams' Vicuna Coat — On Friday, June 13, Hagerty was queried by the press about the reported Goldfine gift of a coat to Adams. He consulted Adams, but did not comment. On that day he learned for the first time that Ike also got a vicuna.

Ike's Vicuna — By Monday, June 16, it was finally confirmed that Adams had received a coat, and on that day Hagerty was asked whether anyone else in the White House had received a coat. "I can speak only for myself," he replied. "My answer is 'No.'" He was then asked by the correspondent of the Manchester, N. H., Union Leader if Goldfine had not offered some suits to the President himself. "I have no knowledge of that," Hagerty replied. Yet on the preceding Friday, Hagerty had learned that Ike had accepted a coat from Goldfine, or at least the material for it.

Adams' Mats — In the course of explaining that Ike had given his vicuna cloth to a friend whose name he couldn't remember, Hagerty said: "He (Pearson) says Adams received several rugs. That is also a lie." Later that same day Adams testified that he had received what he called "mats."

Ike's Heart Condition—Jim vigorously denied, Aug. 4, 1953, this column's report that the President had a heart condition. Subsequent events speak for themselves.

Bikini H-Bomb Test — Hagerty blasted me publicly, April 1, 1954, for allegedly breaking the release on the results of H-bomb tests at Bikini. To have the White House charge a newspaperman with breaking a confidential release is very serious. A newspaperman must keep his confidences. To be so charged by the White House could ruin him with editors. Hagerty telephoned me later to say he was wrong and apologized. He did not make his apology public.

Ike's Denver Illness — On Sept. 24, 1955, the White House announced that the President had suffered a "slight digestive upset," and stuck to this story until after noon. Later it was officially admitted that "the first symptom" of a heart attack was known as early as 2:45 a. m.

Think It Through

—By E. F. Bullion

HOWDY, NEIGHBOR! —Please tell me: How much more will Uncle Samuel "take" from the workers? More and more, unless they stop him. They have the votes to stop him. But will they?

Isn't it time we put on the brakes and stop distributing the taxpayers' $'s to foreign governments, some of which are Communist?

How long before we stop going into debt? Twenty-five per cent down, two years or more to pay the balance. On with the dance! Conditions have changed. So has Uncle Sam.

Before the New Deal our nation was unique in the conduct of its public affairs. We didn't believe in large standing armies, overwhelming public and private debt. We wouldn't tolerate conscription in peace time. But now we have adopted a truckload of European vices — fiscal and military. Our cousins (the British) have bonds issued in Napoleon's time but not yet paid. Today, we have debt from President R's era to be carried into future generations. We have conscription foisted upon our young men forever and a standing army that would bankrupt a rich virgin continent. We have committed our economy to irreversible inflation; and developed the institutions of class warfare.

Now, America looks more and more like the European continent, sounds like it and smells like it.

This is as I see it. We are drifting downstream into a Socialistic State. Only the workers can stop it — at the ballot box.

Futile Proposal by Senator Neuberger

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nothing is lonelier or more futile than a proposal that members of Congress pass a law to police themselves. Sen. Richard Neuberger (D-Ore.) has offered a bill to do that. You can kiss it goodbye.

Yet members of Congress—particularly Republicans running for re-election—have been among the harshest critics of Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's No. 1 assistant, for doing favors for his gift-giving friend Bernard Goldfine.

Neuberger, who makes no apologies for Adams, has said: "The inconsistency between the rules which Congress with a great show of righteousness applies to executive officials and its failure to apply identical standards to its own members undoubtedly has reflected adversely on the reputation of Congress in the public mind."

He suggests: "The doctor ought to have to swallow some of his own medicine."

His bill would compel members of Congress and high government officials once a year to file a report on the sources and amount of each item of income or gifts—including speaking or writing fees—and expenditures that exceed $100, and a statement of assets and liabilities and dealings in securities or commodities during the previous year.

Neuberger is just the latest of a number of liberal senators, who, over recent years, have suggested that Congress set up by law some ethical standards covering conduct of its own members.

Earlier this year, while Congress was poking around the activities of members of the Federal Communications Commission, Neuberger wrote in the New York Times: "If federal commissioners are to be pilloried for accepting hacienda suites at Palm Springs or airplane tickets to Palm Beach, how can senators and representatives continue profitable associations with law firms retained by banks, railroads, labor unions and utility companies?"

He said more this month, both before and after the disclosures about Adams: "Under existing law no official or employee of the executive agencies can leave his public post and press any pending private matter before his old bureau or department before two years have elapsed."

"However, no such restraint applies to members of Congress who quit the House or Senate. They can act as lobbyists or representatives for private interests immediately, even on questions or issues pending before committees on which they recently served."

Neuberger said further: "Committees of Congress require Cabinet appointees of the President to divest themselves of stock holdings in corporations that have business dealings with the federal departments which these appointees will administer."

"Yet members of the Senate and House can own shares or partnerships in businesses that are directly affected by legislation which these senators or representatives are drafting or voting upon."

Members of Congress, to get more money for their expenses, make speeches for perhaps as much as $1,000 a talk before groups virtually interested in legislation pending before Congress.

Members of Congress get elected with the help of campaign funds fattened by contributions from labor unions, distilleries, sawmills, gas and oil corporations, power companies, airlines and mines, all with interest in legislation before Congress.

Throughout all his arguments Neuberger keeps raising the question: "Who is going to police the policeman?" The answer—based on what Congress has done to all previous suggestions like Neuberger's—is: no one.

Child's Anger at Parental Advice Can Be Healthy Sign

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

In May the parents of Curt's best friend invited him to spend July at their lake home. He was overjoyed. For ever since he'd known Steve, he'd played the role of envious listener to Steve's tales of fishing exploits, boat racing and the charm of girls to be met at Saturday dances at the local Yacht Club.

Then in June the blow fell.

Curt failed his 11th grade history course. His teacher said, "If you don't want to repeat it next term, you'd better plan on summer school."

His father tried to resolve the problem for him. He said, "If you have to repeat history next term, you may delay your graduation. You'll be a fool not to make sure of your history points this summer so that you can forget them and concentrate on next term's work."

Curt wasn't grateful for this clarification. "O.K., O.K.," he yelled at his father. "Leave me alone for a minute, can't you?"

Later, his father, shaking his head over the inexperienced unreasonableness of the young, said to his mother, "You try to help—and what do you get? Some time this kid has to face a fact. I guess I'll just have to put my foot down on this visiting business."

But Curt was struggling desperately to face the fact his father wanted him to face.

His anger at his father was his anger at interference with his inward struggle.

The angrier an adolescent child is at our reasonable advice, the more encouraged we should be about him. His anger tells us that the tension of decision between foolishness and reason is rising to climax inside him—that his own conscience is actively at work on decision instead of passively sleeping on the job. It tells us that we don't have a fool for a child at all but a morally responsible human being.

Assist For Small Business

Tax Relief, Long-Term Loans In New Legislation

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Prospects are bright this session for congressional approval of three measures to help small business. The proposals would strengthen and extend the Small Business Administration, provide tax relief, and make available long-term loans and equity capital.

The House passed legislation last year to make the SBA a permanent agency. But a Senate committee didn't get around to approving the measure in amended form until recently.

The new bill would extend the SBA for three years, increase the authorization for business loans from $305 to $500 million, and provide assistance for obtaining research and development contracts.

The last mentioned provision should be of special benefit to Missouri. It would direct the SBA to help small firms obtain government research and development contracts and profit from such work performed by larger firms at government expense. It would also enable groups of small businesses to join together for research and development without violating anti-trust and other federal trade laws.

The measure for long-term loans and equity capital was recently passed by the Senate and is under active consideration by the House Committee on Banking and Currency. As amended by the Senate, it would establish an investment division within the SBA to help meet the credit needs of small business.

The Small Business Investment Division (SBID) would administer a $250 million revolving fund for loans to small business investment companies and state and local development companies. These companies would in turn loan funds to small businesses.

The legislation is called "sound" by even conservatives because the program would supplement, rather than supplant existing private facilities, and would not entail creation of a new agency.

The third proposal for tax relief would enable small business corporations to obtain partnership-type tax treatment and pay the federal estate tax over a period of up to ten years in certain cases. The House Ways and Means Committee is now putting this legislation into final form.

'Adequate' Home Insurance Covers More Than House

By FAYE HENLE

We've been queried: What is "adequate" home insurance?

For the most part it is the new homeowner that asks this question. The desire exists to strike a happy medium between being over and underinsured. Too often the established homeowner overlooks reappraising his property insurance in the light of both the improvements he undoubtedly has made and the increasing value of houses in today's inflationary climate.

"Adequate" coverage, according to the survey we've made, includes fire and extended coverage policies. Simple extended coverage generally includes the protection against damage as a result of hail, windstorm, lightning, riot and explosion. Without this coverage it is doubtful whether any lending institution would be willing to grant you a mortgage.

Some lenders might urge that you buy additional extended coverage. For just a few pennies more per month such coverage could, for instance, replace your oil burner if it blew up. It might cover expensive window glass and such.

When you have fire and extended coverage policies your banker is happy because that portion of your home that he may hold a partial lien upon will be replaced in the event of damage.

But you have a larger stake than he does in your house. What about its contents and your personal possessions? Still more important, through some unfortunate accident resulting in personal injury to another, you could lose all that you own, including your home. Therefore our definition of "adequate" coverage also includes theft coverage and a personal liability policy.

Your theft policy should be written to protect you against losses both on your premises and away from home. Easily confused with a more luxurious instrument called a personal property floater, theft insurance merely replaces items lost as a result of theft and not property lost via any other accidental means.

Personal liability is sometimes called a goodwill policy but it represents a great deal more than mere kindness to another. This policy covers you in the event that someone is injured on your property or by you or a member of your family away from home.

In most states, $10 a year, or slightly more, will buy you $10,000 of liability plus $250 per person for medical payments per accident. You might be able to trim your budget on theft coverage if you are able to stand the loss of modest amounts of cash, a fur coat or some household furnishings. But the wealthier you are, the more important this personal liability coverage becomes.

In recent years it has been popular for insurance companies to offer, especially to the new home owner, packaged policies called either "homeowners'" or "comprehensive dwelling" policies. In the "homeowners'" the amounts of coverage for the most part are set according to the valuation of the home. In the "comprehensive dwelling" policy, the purchaser enjoys certain rights in selecting the amounts of coverage throughout.

Both policies contain fire, extended coverage, theft and personal liability. Since they are bought in a package, the rates on these usually average 20 per cent less than if these same policies were individually written.

LITTLE LIZ

There would be fewer accidents if more people drove as if they owned the car instead of the road.

Where Does Williams Go? Right Into Pat Boone's Spot

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (NEA)—You can tell that Andy Williams is pretty excited about his new show. He was talking about it in Toots Shor's, and the distractions were severe.

At the table right next to him, Shor, a large man with a voice like a dying elevator, was telling jokes to four loud laughers. Right across at the other table, a young French starlet, Christine Carere, was holding court. And just beyond her, was a large, unidentified blonde with a figure like there's no tomorrow.

Despite it all, Andy Williams talked steadily and intelligently about his new show. It starts July 3, replacing Pat Boone's Chevy Showroom for the summer on ABC-TV.

"None of us," said Andy, "thinks of it as a summer replacement. We like to think of it as a new show that just happens to start in July."

By "us," Williams referred to a fine team he's assembled. His chief writer will be Robert Paul Smith, author of "Where Did You Go? Out," etc. Bill Hoban, a tried-and-true TV name, is producer. Ralph Burns is musical director. Andy's brother, Dick, is doing the vocal arrangements. Dick Van Dyke will do the comedy ("I'll do what I do best—singing—and leave the comedy and dancing to others," Andy says) and the Hamilton Trio the dancing.

It's Andy's first big solo show, although he's a fairly well-established name after many hours with Steve Allen and countless guest appearances. He's also a well-known figure with the teen-agers, thanks to several hit records on Archie Bleyer's Cadence label.

So he deserves the break, and chances are better than even that he'll make good. He's an old pro, despite his youth.

It all began in Wall Lake, Ia., ("There's no wall, and no lake, either") where he was the youngest of four singing brothers. There's a younger sister, too, but she really doesn't count since she was just "a normal girl and went to school and then got married and had two kids."

Their father played the piano, and bribed the boys to sing with ice cream. When Andy was six and big brother Dick was seven they entered an amateur contest, won a bicycle and their career was underway.

"But we weren't what I'd call a theatrical family," says Andy. "We never sang in nightclubs or theaters as kids. Just some on radio."

It built until the four Williams brothers were well-known throughout the Midwest. Then they joined Kay Thompson and that resultant act—Kay Thompson and the Williams Brothers—were a solid smash for several years. When it broke up, the brothers went their separate ways.

As of now the oldest, Bob, is out of the business. He's a purchasing agent for a jet aircraft concern. Don, the next, has a vocal group that operates out of Las Vegas. Dick, next in line, sings around New York, doing commercials, recording for Decca, and writing songs and jingles. And then there's Andy.

He's a medium-height, sandy-haired, soft-spoken man. As yet, he's unmarried—"I've been pretty lucky"—and consequently given to certain extravagances.

For one thing, he likes to get in a taxicab and ride. This happens, he says, "whenever something nice happens to me, or when I want to think about something." Since nice things happen frequently, and he's given to more-than-occasional thinking, he's known as the taxicab company's best friend.

For another thing, he's a budding art collector. Although no painter, he likes to surround himself with nice paintings, generally modern impressionists. This started when he was with Kay Thompson, who paints a little. Williams thinks she's pretty good and has a couple of original Thompsons on his walls.

"My taste has improved in many things since I met Kay," he says. "For instance, I used to like maroon. Now I don't. There are many nicer, brighter colors than maroon."

There are no maroon paintings in the Williams gallery.

Andy's taste in music, though, hasn't changed. He sings ballads mostly, and very smoothly. He also has good taste in TV, a subject about which he thinks deeply.

For example, he thinks thoughts like there are too many girl-boy duets on TV music shows (so there'll be no regular girl singer on his), and there shouldn't be big production numbers on musical shows except on Saturday nights, and that he prefers to see two or three dancers rather than a whole group "because dancers look better with space around them."

All these thoughts are preliminary to his ultimatum career—TV directing. This he'd like to do "when my tonsils give out." Fortunately for Andy Williams fans, that's probably a long way off.

OUR STREETS, and the "SOLUTION"

(This adv. paid for by West Side Variety in the interest of better city government)

Equity at law—a rather hum-drum, platonic sounding phrase to the average layman, BUT . . .

To the student of law, it has a meaning that can become thunderous when applied in the courts, or used to bring forth equitable laws in the legislative halls of our 48 states.

We will try to humbly describe equity at law (with the aid of Mr. Webster) as "any body of legal doctrines and rules similarly developed to enlarge, supplement, or override a system of law which has become too narrow and rigid in scope."

NOW FOR OUR SUBJECT MATTER, WHERE WE FEEL THAT LEGISLATIVE EQUITY AT LAW SHOULD BE APPLIED.

It has to do with our streets, or what is left of them after 25 years of failure on the part of both Democrat and Republican city administrations—failure to realize that Sedalia automobile owners are heavy taxpayers, and are due relief from the "narrow and rigid" thinking of our city and state officials.

WHY SHOULD ANY CITY REAL ESTATE OWNER BE FORCED TO PAY THE FULL AMOUNT FOR INSTALLATION OF OUR STREETS?

This kind of legislation, or lack of legislation, reverts to the days of the Model-T Ford—before the city and state were collecting millions of dollars in tax monies from auto owners. The property owner had to pay the full amount of construction and maintenance in those days so that he could drive his car to the nearest gravel sprinkled state highway without sinking to the floor-boards.

That picture changed rapidly many years ago.

THE LAWS REMAINED UNCHANGED, and no relief was provided for the city owners of real estate.

Streets were paved and people without extensive funds (especially the older folks) lost their homes to the boys and gals who watch day and night for "tax sale properties."

Our streets, and the streets of other cities whose officials were too busy playing petty politics, went to hell and remained there. Hundreds of thousands of Sedalia dollars paid into the city coffers by automobile owners were expended for practically everything but better streets.

Intelligent voters of Sedalia are awake now, and have been for several years. Their disgust with the poor allocation of vast funds created by parking meter collections, city gasoline tax, city auto license, personal tax on automobiles, etc. was expressed in the recent election.

Now let's get back to equity at law—Why should Sedalia property owners pay the entire cost of street construction? Property owners outside municipal boundaries do not pay one red cent directly for road construction and maintenance.

May we humbly propose that the laws be changed as follows to give relief to property owners in any and all Missouri cities—

For any and all street construction, the State of Missouri shall pay one-third the cost; the City of Sedalia shall pay one-third the cost from tax monies created by ownership and operation of automobiles; and the property owners affected by the street construction shall pay the remaining one-third of the cost.

We believe this is fair and just to all the people.

If this plan is adopted in due time, we can pave our streets with permanent steel-reinforced concrete at less cost to the property owner than the present "black sorghum" spread.

We feel that it is high time that the various factions in our City Council cease their petty back-biting, school-boy pranks, etc. and begin using their heads.

We have some intelligent men in our city legislative body, and our mayor is blessed with logic and common horse-sense.

What say boys?

Crosby Gives Reasons For Being in News

B BOBTHOM AS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The second generation of Crosbys has been much in the news lately, and Bob Crosby thinks he knows why. "It's the natural urge that all kids have to compete with their fathers," said Bing's younger brother. "It's nothing new, nor is it peculiar to show business. There's many a butcher's son who is frustrated because he can't cut as thin a slice of bacon as his father."
"But when the father is famous, the urge to compete comes in the form of publicity. It's easy to get into the papers when you have a famous name. But it can be quite embarrassing to the family."

"I tell my own children and I tell Bing's that they shouldn't let the fact that their fathers are in the limelight affect them. They should be neither extroverts or introverts because of it, but just try to create their own individuality."

Of course, that is easier said than done. The young Crosbys have made the headlines and gossip columns already. Bob's own 15-year-old Chris made the papers last week.

"It was a stupid thing and Chris himself admits it," Bob said. "He doesn't know why he did it, except that he had just broken up with his girl and wanted to teach her a lesson or something."

"He had just gotten his own new car as a reward for getting a B average in school. He was seven days away from getting his own license, so he had to have an older boy drive for him."

"Well, he and the other boy drove by a new car and they decided to see how fast it could go. They were starting to push it away when they were caught."

"It was a senseless thing to do, but think of the senseless things that you did when you were a kid—the things you could have been arrested for."

"It's just too bad that there had to be so much publicity. I think there should be a rule here, as there is in New York City, that names of minors who are involved in misdemeanors should not be publicized."

Bob added that it's difficult to rear children, famous or not, in this era and in Hollywood.

"It's hard to give them values in this period of uncertainty," he commented. "The boys know that

The Three Faces of 'Schultzzy'

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — You have seen or heard about "The Three Faces of Eve," of course. But do you know about the three faces of Ann? — Ann B. Davis? Or "Schultzzy" to you. The Emmy winning comedienne of "The Bob Cummings" TV show. The sharp-witted, rubber-faced doll who wears her hair in a bun atop her head and a sign, "I Want A Man," in her eyes.

There is Ann's TV face of Schultzzy. That you know. But even while she is working on a sound stage in Hollywood, there is the face of Ann 3,000 miles away in Lexington, Mass.

The face is the same — of Ann's identical twin sister Harriet Norton. When Harriet twists her hair into a bun atop her head she can fool J. Edgar Hoover into believing she's Ann. Or Schultzzy.

Harriet, in fact, almost joined Ann in the cast for one Cummings show during a visit to Hollywood. They dressed her like Schultzzy for a double vision plot. They made a film test but Harriet, a mother and a housewife, couldn't handle the lines and the idea was shelved.

Hit Parade Job Has Lost Its Glitter

By HOWARD BENEDICT

NEW YORK (AP) — Dorothy Collins has a warm spot in her heart for the Hit Parade program, but she's not so sure she wants to return to it.

"After seven years I naturally grew very fond of the Hit Parade," she said, "but since leaving it last year, I've found so much professional satisfaction in other phases of show business that I don't know whether I could be tied down to a regular show again."

The Hit Parade management dropped Dorothy, her husband Raymond Scott, Gisele MacKenzie, Snooky Lanson and other program regulars last year in favor of an untried team of newcomers. Now the management would like to have Dorothy back when the program shifts from NBC to CBS in the fall.

Dorothy, who progressed from singing commercials to a starring role on the program, doesn't shut the door completely.

"Actually, I'm leaving the decision up to my manager Hillard Elkins," she said. "If he thinks I should, and will have the time, then there's a chance I will return to the show. But it's an outside chance."

Elkins says pretty much the same thing: "Dorothy has blossomed forth as an actress in the past year, and there are so many good things awaiting her in movies and theater that we're not quite sure she'll be available for the series."

In the meantime, Canadian-born Dorothy is ready to swing back into the professional whirl after a long maternity layoff. Earlier this month she gave birth to her second daughter.

Her first stop will be on the Steve Allen television show this Sunday night.

"I'll sing a couple songs, including a new one written by my husband Raymond called 'Never Love a Stranger.' It will be wonderful to get back to work again."

Then she goes to Pittsburgh for rehearsal and a week's appearance in July as Laurey in a stage production of the musical "Oklahoma." Later in the month, she will do a night club act in Atlantic City, and in August will repeat the "Oklahoma" role during a two week stint in St. Louis.

they can look forward to two or three years in the Army; their future is unsettled."

The third face of Ann is one only a few people have seen.

She used it as an unknown comedienne in a little downstairs beer and wine only bistro at the wrong end of Sunset Blvd. here. Ann was known as "Typhoid Mary" in those struggling-for-recognition days.

She had a bun on her head then, too, but it was pierced by a big chicken bone set at a rakish angle. She wore a sarong, high laced shoes, horn rimmed glasses and a lei around her neck. She came out on the little stage by stages — first sticking a bare leg out from behind a curtain. The other leg and the arms and the rest of her followed, while the customers pounded heavy beer mugs on the red-topped tables.

Then Ann sang about having a romance with an Englishman in a song she says "made no sense at all." Her salary didn't make sense, either. A couple of dollars or so a night. But "Typhoid Mary" helped the career of Ann B. Davis far more than all of her six years of little theater, stock companies and touring musicals in the bush leagues.

People in Hollywood who knew people who knew other people passed the word about Ann's flair for comedy. One of these people was an agent and after a couple of passes at the movie studios—all turned her down — Ann auditioned for the role of Schultzzy.

There was no question about it. She WAS Schultzzy.

Every now and then on the show Ann comes up with some fourth face to keep the laughs coming. Like when she slipped her head into a blonde wig and her hips into a high gear wiggle for a Marilyn Monroeish character called "Flaming Charmaine."

Charmaine was quite a challenge. But it's why, after three years as Schultzzy, Ann isn't a bit weary or frustrated, like some TV series show regulars, about the limitations and the monotony of it all.

"Our writer, Paul Henning, is a genius," Ann says. "He keeps throwing challenges at me."

The Ann B. (for Bradford) Davis who ditched plans to study medicine at the University of Michigan, switching to drama (class of '48), is a native of Schenectady, N. Y., and a member of the "I Live Alone and Like It" Club. She has a Hollywood bungalow, where she chatters to a French poodle and a parakeet and where she cooks, reads science fiction hair raisers and keeps a weight chart — "I have to count calories"—which is down 30 pound points since 1953.

But quite unlike Schultzzy, there are nights when Ann hits the night club beat on the arm of some male pal and takes tourists by surprise with a mean rhumba. She's a doll with romantic frustrations on TV, but she's had her chances as Ann, she will tell you.

"I could have married for love once and once for money," she told me. "But I would have had to give up acting — and that I can't do."

Padgett Gives Talk on CAP At Kiwanis

The important contribution the Civil Air Patrol plays in the development of youths in our country was explained in a talk by Lieut. Col. Billy Padgett before the Sedalia Kiwanis club meeting in Bothwell Hotel Thursday noon.

Included in the cadet training program for boys and girls 15 to 19 years old, the speaker called attention to the ten-week course of training to acquire a basic understanding of aviation and its opportunities which requires two years to complete.

Locally the cadets have classwork in the little red school house on East Highway 50 near the Municipal Airport.

The speaker also described the search and rescue missions of the Civil Air Patrol, and how this volunteer organization promotes and encourages aviation in every possible way. This includes the annual encampment, one of which has been in progress at Whiteman Air Force Base attended by 129 boys and girls taking a 12-day course of instruction. Col. Padgett invited Kiwanians to become interested in sponsoring cadet trainees at subsequent encampments.

He also stated that the Civil Defense organization in the local area with which the Civil Air Patrol cooperates, was improving rapidly, that a survey of the community for a warning system has been made and recommendations prepared to be submitted to the city council for implementation. After an alarm system has been installed a program of public education concerning it will begin. Also there will be a training program for those who work in and supervise civil defense activities.

The speaker was introduced by Arthur Morgan, program chairman.

Past President Walter Kennedy, who has been absent from the club because of physical injury, was presented a certificate and lapel pin indicating his 35 years of membership in Kiwanis. The presentation was made by the Rev. Edward R. Sims, president.

Henry Salveter, assisted by C. L. Hanley and Job Harned, inducted into membership Howard Keele, manager of Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. and C. R. Rose, manager of Kridwick, Inc.

The club voted to hold its attendance contest victory dinner Thursday night, July 17.

Singing was led by Abe Rosenthal with Miss Lillian Fox, pianist. Invocation was by John Snodgrass.

Springfield Girl Names Tipton Mail Centennial

A Springfield girl submitted the winning entry in a contest to select the official name for the Centennial Tipton-Overland Mail Centennial to be celebrated Sept. 13-20.

J. J. Brant, chairman of Tipton Centennial Inc., announced today that an anonymous committee of three men had selected the name, "Tipton Overland Stage Days," submitted by Miss Norma Jean Crabtree, 432 South Jefferson, Springfield, as the official name for the Centennial Pageant.

The celebration will mark the beginning of the city of Tipton, which was the end of the Missouri Pacific Lines 100 years ago. As mail was discharged from the trains, it was picked up by the Butterfield Stage Line, and carried as the Butterfield Overland Mail to San Francisco.

The celebration will include a warm-up celebration in Tipton, then a reenactment of the original trip to the west coast along the same route with various publicized stops along the way.

Counterfeit Beepers Ready for Sentencing

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The case of the counterfeit beepers is all over except for the sentencing.

Three engineers will be sentenced July 16 for operating an unlicensed radio station and interfering with communications. Last December, as a joke, they set up a radio transmitter which sent beeps matching Soviet Sputnik signals.

Federal court found the trio guilty yesterday after the Federal Communications Commission described how much work it took to track down the transmitter, which was hidden in the mountains north of here.

The engineers, Ruon D. Jensen and Dean L. Hanson, Los Angeles, and Fred Field Jr., Torrance, have asked for probation.

Sheppard Criticizes Defense Department

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Major Gen. A. D. Sheppard, Missouri adjutant general, criticized the Department of Defense today for going ahead with plans to cut the strength of the National Guard in the face of known Russian military strength.

Sheppard pointed to a Defense Department report that Soviet army ground forces still number at least 2½ million men and added:

"It is difficult to reconcile the Defense Department's proposed cuts in the manpower of Army National Guard units with the release of such a report on Soviet military strength, particularly its strength in trained reserves."

"This cut has been opposed by the whole of the Armed Forces Committee of the House and this stand has almost the 100 per cent support of the entire House of Representatives but Defense Department officials have repeatedly ignored the desires of the people expressed through congressional action."

Plans to cut the guard from 400,000 to 360,000 and eliminate a third of the units will affect Missouri, Sheppard said, but specific units and towns are not known.

Matter of FACT

Of the five ships and about 287 men who set sail with Ferdinand Magellan on Aug. 10, 1519, on his expedition around the world, only one ship and 18 men re-entered the Spanish port of Seville three years later. Magellan himself was killed on the voyage, the first one completely around the world.

A's to Play Columbia In Important Meeting

The Sedalia Athletics will attempt to regain first place in the Missouri Valley ABC League tonight when they meet Columbia's league leading VFW at Columbia.

The VFW club, winners of the 1957 Missouri Semi-Pro Tournament, got off to a bad start this season and only ten days ago they were mired in last place. A victory over Jefferson City got them rolling and they have extended their win streak to three by whipping Jefferson City again and Sedalia.

This will be the final game of the first half between the A's and Columbia. In the first meeting Elroy Burton tamed the Vets, 5-3, but last Friday night at Liberty Park Boone Countians evened the count by breaking a 2-2 deadlock in the ninth to win, 3-2. Elroy Burton hurled one of the best games of the season for an Athletic moundsman in this tilt, allowing only two singles, but four Sedalia errors and six walks proved disastrous.

The starting lineup for the A's in tonight's game has not been announced. Burton will probably get the starting assignment, however.

Columbia holds a slim margin in the Missouri Valley League with four wins against three losses. Sedalia and Mexico have broken even for the season with two wins and two losses. Last year's champs, the Jefferson City Redbirds, are lodged in last place with three triumphs and four straight setbacks.

The Athletics, sponsored by Mid-Mo Electric, Owen General Tires and Hamm's Beer, will wind-up first half play against the Redbirds at the Capital City on Sunday night. Bill McKelvey, the smooth working lefty, is expected to make his first start of the season for the locals in this one. The A's and the Birds are even for the season.

The A's have three first half games to play with Mexico. The previous tilts slated between these clubs were postponed.

Dodgers Quit The Cellar By Winning Five

By ED WILKS

Well, look who ain't dead! Those Los Angeles Dodgers are breathing again, winning five of their last six in a drive to quit the cellar and extending their whammy over Milwaukee's National League champs to eight straight.

Right-hander Don Drysdale, the hoped-for ace who lost seven of his first eight decisions, has won two in a row for the first time this season.

He finally bagged his second complete game as the Dodgers beat the Braves 4-1 last night. The second-place St. Louis Cardinals kept rolling, beating Pittsburgh 6-2 for a four-game sweep against the Pirates and a six-game winning streak. That kept them .003 percentage points ahead of the San Francisco Giants, who won two in a row for the first time in a month with a 5-1 victory at Cincinnati.

In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-3. Second-place Kansas City beat Washington 8-6 in 12 innings. Baltimore dropped Detroit 2-0 on Jack Harshman's five-hit pitching, and Boston handed Cleveland a 2-1 defeat.

The Dodgers got to Lew Burdette for a run in each of the first three innings. Charlie Neal's 11th homer bagged it in the second. Drysdale homered in the seventh.

The Giants scored a run in the first with the help of an error, then cracked a 1-1 tie with four in the eighth, capped by Orlando Cepeda's two-on fifteenth homer. Johnny Antonelli won his eighth. Harvey Haddix lost his fourth.

The Cards, who have come behind in five games during the streak, did it again. An error by Bob Skinner opened the way for three runs in the seventh as Ken Boyer tripled and Gene Green, Curt Flood and Hobie Landrith followed with singles off loser Vern Law (7-5). Lindy McDaniel won his fourth.

Bill Mazaroski booted two in a two-run Cardinal ninth, giving the Pirates a total of 11 errors in the four-game set.

Rookie Puts in Plug For Umpires of NL

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rookie Ray Semproch, Philadelphia Phillies leading pitcher, put in a plug for National League umpires today.

"Big difference between the majors and the minors is the umpiring," said Semproch who is bidding for Rookie of the Year honors with an 8-5 record. "It's better in the majors."

"Umpires give you the corners in this league. With the ball so lively, I spot my pitches carefully. Up here I can be pretty sure a good pitch called a corner of the plate will be called a strike."

After a rainy night Tuesday, both leagues got under way again Wednesday evening with two double headers.

Ice went down to defeat to Optimist in a closely-contested defensive ball game, 6-5, in the first game at Liberty Park.

Randall, who has pitched two no-hitters this season, gave up six hits for six runs. Goff, the winning hurler for Optimist, allowed eight hits and was spared of a possible defeat in the last of the fifth inning when center fielder Kitchen leaped high in the air and pulled down a long and firmly-hit ball by first-sacker Greer, robbing Ice of a homer with a man on base. Goff helped himself with a three-run homer in the top of the fourth.

Both teams played good defensive ball with a tight game to the finish.

Moose crushed the Lions club in the second game, 6-1. Mathews, the winner allowed seven hits and no walks, showing good control as he fanned 11 Lions hitters in six innings. Ryan, the loser, allowed eight hits and two walks.

Both pitchers had good control, but Moose was able to capitalize on their eight hits. Ryan had the best night at the plate with two hits for three trips.

The Post 16 B-team was able to play their first game against the Elks before the rain Tuesday night. They played it well and beat Elks 16-14, in a game in which both pitchers had trouble with control.

Both pitchers gave up 16 bases on balls. Post 16 got only three hits and the Elks batters went hitless.

In the first game at Housel Wednesday night Optimist - B squeaked by Ice with a 5-4 victory. McRoy was the winning pitcher, giving up six hits and walking three. Reiger was the loser, allowing only three hits and walking seven. Reiger and Griffin had a perfect night at the plate, and McRoy, McKinley and Long capped the three Optimist hits.

Ice-A edged Optimist-A in the second game, 3-2.

On the mound for Ice was Tippi who pitched five-hit ball allowing three walks. Losing hurler Hohmner gave up only three hits and two walks, but was tagged for the loss.

Shoemaker, Phillips and Tippi had the three lone Ice hits. Optimist first baseman Stratton had a perfect two-for-two night at the plate.

Both Thursday night major league games were broadcast over KDRO Radio. The first game was a contest in which Kiwanis over-powered Moose, 11-4, in a contest closer than the score indicates.

The game was tied at 3-3 at the end of six innings. Kiwanis exploded in their half of the extra inning with eight runs on two hits. Moose could only come up with one more in the last half. Racunas was the losing pitcher, giving up seven hits and seven walks. Gibbs was the winner, allowing only three hits but walking 11. Paxton, Kiwanis third baseman, hit the lone home run of the night with no one on in the first.

Jaycees dealt Adco a big defeat in the second game, 16-4. Winning hurler Gravitt pitched a two-hitter and walked seven. The two Adco hits went to Burnett and Rymer. Rash was the loser. He allowed only one base on balls but was hit hard with 14 Jaycee hits.

Parker, Jaycee center fielder had a three-for-four night at the plate. All told, Jaycee power and pitching was dominant in the second game.

Kiwanis-B defeated Moose-B in the first game at Housel Park, 10-6. Hunt was the losing Moose moundsman, giving up ten hits and seven walks. Pfletcher, the winner, also allowed seven walks but was only tagged for five hits. Pfletcher helped himself at the plate with a perfect three-for-three night. Nash, Kiwanis shortstop, had two-for-two. Pitcher Hunt had one-for-one at the plate, drawing two walks.

Moose-A came back in the second game to beat Kiwanis-A, 7-3, in a well-pitched ball game. Hazell the losing Kiwanis pitcher, allowed only four hits and one walk, but was hurt by five costly errors.

Harms, the winner, pitched tight ball, giving up two hits and three walks. The four Moose hits came from Miller, Young, McKenzie and Barman. Burns and Hazell collected the two Kiwanis hits.

General William Tecumseh Sherman, great Civil War general, refused to be a presidential candidate in 1864.

Fine Schedule Of Harness Racing Picked

A $112,000 racing card, plus over-all track improvement to the mile fairground plant of the Missouri State Fair at Sedalia, has kept the big Missouri exhibition a member of the nation's top harness racing chain, the Grand Circuit.

President Octave Blake and the Circuit stewards have placed their full stamp of approval on the 1958 dates of the five afternoons, Aug. 18-22, when the top stables of the country invade the Midwest on their annual summer swing.

Following the 1957 State meet, leading horsemen who expressed a desire to return this season, also went on record to both the Grand Circuit and the Fair officials, and informed them that some much needed improvements would have to be made.

The fair officials came right back with the promise of doing what the horsemen asked for, and they showed their eagerness to keep Grand Circuit racing in Sedalia, by having Secretary A. C. (Colie) Ervin and racing secretary Art Eilerman, map out a $112,000 racing card for the five afternoons.

High spots of the August Grand Circuit meet will be the 49th racing of the Hambletonian Preview for the 3-year-old trotters and the 24th decisions for the Geers for 2-year-old pacers.

Both have been set for the big afternoon of the fair, Wednesday, Aug. 20. The Preview takes on significant honors this year, for it will be the finest test for all time eligibles to the $110,000 Hambletonian Stake at DuQuoin, just one week later.

The eyes of the entire harness horse world will be centered on Sedalia that afternoon, to see just who comes out of the Preview as the Hambletonian favorite, the supporting favorites, the possible starters, the long shots and out and out dark horses.

The Matron for the 3-year-old pacers, companion feature to the trotting division, and the Tompkins Memorial for the baby trotters, will be the companion features in this year's racing card, and decided on the fourth day of the fair.

Prior to Sedalia the Grand Circuit stables race at Sportsman's Park in Chicago, and the Illinois State Fair at Springfield, where two of the season's richest programs will offer nearly $900,000 in purses for the 12 days, six at each track.

Patterson Bowls Against Locals In Night Match

Pat Patterson will be the target of three of Sedalia's most popular bowlers tonight on the "Bowling at Broadway" television program, which will be held at Broadway Lanes. Patterson is one of the nation's outstanding legkies and is a member of the famous St. Louis Budweisers. He carries a lifetime average of 205, has registered nine perfect games, and is a past BPAA and Bowlers Journal champion.

The Sedalians bowling against Patterson in tonight's match will be Joe Long, Bob McCurdy and Red Heuerman. All three carried averages in excess of 180 in ABC sanctioned leagues at Broadway Lanes this past season. McCurdy previously tied on the Bowling at Broadway championship match series which was televised over KDRO-TV. Long, with a straight and fast ball, and Heuerman, with a smooth rolling curve, have been among Sedalia's top bowlers for many seasons.

Patterson is appearing in Sedalia in connection with promotions by the American Machine and Foundry Company, makers of automatic pinsetters and other bowling equipment. He will be available to provide instructions before and after the match game.

Surgery for Injured Hand of Bob Nieman Is Under Discussion

BALTIMORE (AP)—Now there's talking about the possibility of surgery for the injured right hand of Bob Nieman, Baltimore Orioles outfielder out of the lineup since June 2.

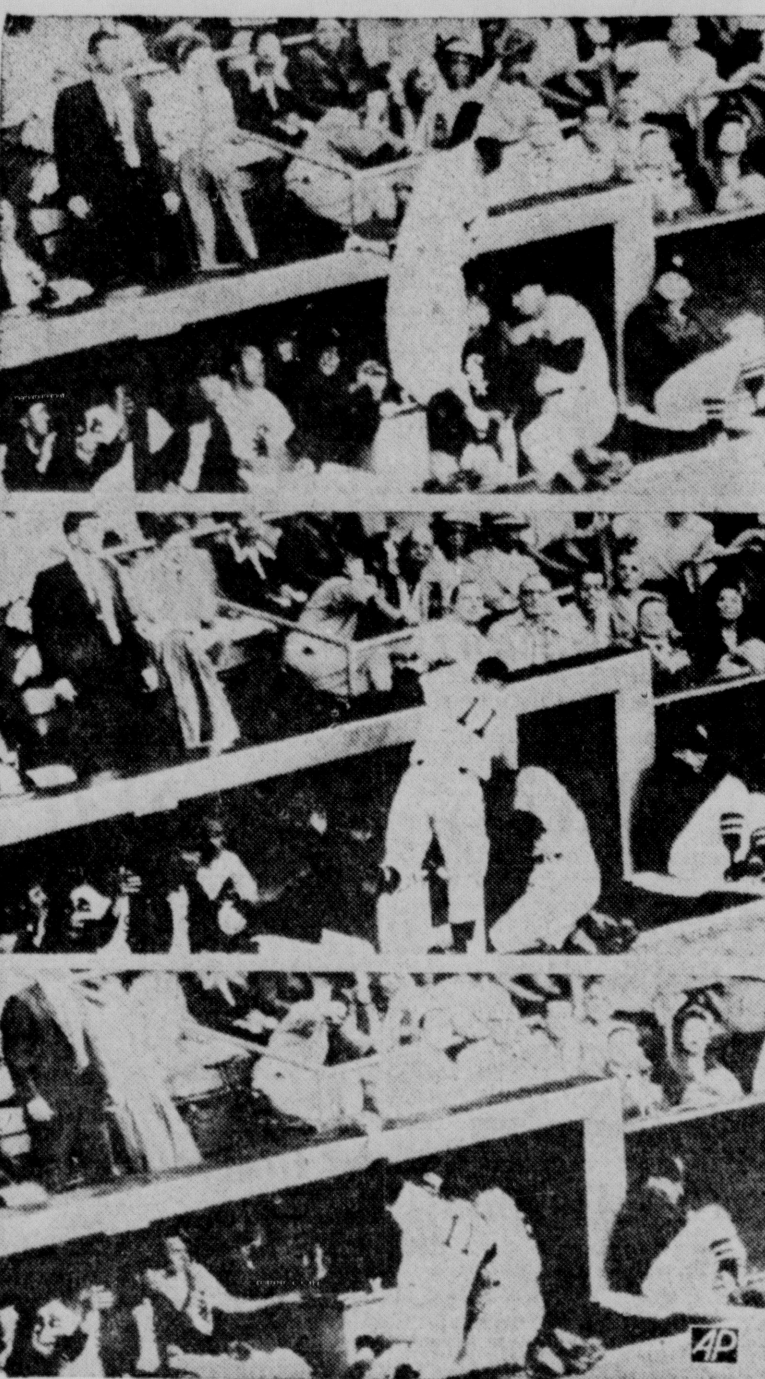

Nieman flew here late Thursday from Detroit after a physical examination by the Tiger's team physician, Dr. Luther Leader. Dr. Leader told him he has a partial dislocation of the bone extending from the middle finger into the back of the hand.

Dr. Leader said it would have to be corrected surgically. This was the third different diagnosis Nieman has received since he was hit by a line drive off the bat of teammate Bob Boyd. He returned here to be examined by Dr. George Bennett, orthopedic surgeon.

Heavyweight Title Bout Date Definite

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The heavyweight title bout between champion Floyd Patterson and Roy Harris appears definitely set for Aug. 18 at Wrigley Field. The State Athletic Commission approved the date Thursday. The commission recommended that the Art Aragon-Carmen Basilio match set for Aug. 28 at Wrigley Field be reset for some time in September.

Not Going Well

Ted Williams Fails to Make New AllStar Starting Lineup

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Williams failed to make the starting lineup for the July 8 All-Star Game today in the team selected for the first time by the major league players, coaches and managers.

The 39-year-old Boston Red Sox slugger who has played 13 previous All-Star Games undoubtedly will be named to the squad for the Baltimore contest when the managers announce the remainder of their 25-man teams Sunday.

"Well, I didn't expect to make it. I haven't been going too well," Williams said in Detroit, where the Red Sox play tonight.

Pittsburgh placed three starters on the National League side where only Stan Musial of St. Louis, Willie Mays of San Francisco and Hank Aaron of Milwaukee are repeaters from the 1957 lineup.

Only Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Nelson Fox of the Chicago White Sox were named from the 1957 starters in the American, which will be missing such familiar names as Yogi Berra of New York, Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline of Detroit and Williams.

The result of the voting was announced by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick at a press conference after Frank Slocum of the commissioner's office had toured the majors, distributing and collecting the ballots. He reported 235 votes in the American and 231 in the National.

Musial, who will be playing his 15th All-Star Game, received 201 of the 231 votes.

Top man in the American League was Boston's Frank Malzone at third base, with 186 votes. Williams, batting only .299, gave way to Bob Cerv, the thumping left fielder of the Kansas City Athletics who has been leading the league in runs batted in and home runs most of the time.

The closest fight was for second base in the American, where Fox nosed out Gil McDougald of the Yankees 109-104.

The old order really was upset in the American with Bill Skowron of the Yanks on first base despite Mickey Vernon's league leading batting average at Cleveland. Luis Aparicio of Chicago took over at shortstop with Kuenn, the usual tenant, shifting to center where he finished behind the Yanks' Mickey Mantle.

Jackie Jensen of Boston, who had been battling with Cerv for the home run title, ousted Detroit's Al Kaline from right field. Baltimore's Gus Triandos beat out both Sherm Lollar of Chicago and Berra for the catching job.

In the National League, Ernie Banks of Chicago won by a landslide at shortstop with 184 votes to 16 for Milwaukee's Johnny Logan. Frank Thomas of Pittsburgh beat out Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews for third base. Another Pirate, Bill Mazeroski, was picked for second.

Mays won center field with 185 votes. Aaron also was an easy winner in right field. Bob Skinner of the Pirates was a surprising winner in left.

Milwaukee's Del Crandall was tabbed for catcher.

Segura Will Make All-Out Try for Title

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Pancho Segura says he will make an all-out try for the singles title in Jack Kramer's $15,000 masters round robin pro tennis tournament, which starts here Saturday.

Segura said he will pass up a chance at some of the prize money in the doubles to have his strength for singles.

The popular Pancho has one big hurdle, however. That's another Pancho named Gonzales. Segura meets Gonzales first.

A's Confront Yankees With Hot Streak

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

Here's a switch. Kansas City confronts the New York Yankees with a hot streak tonight, instead of the other way around. The A's have won six straight for the first time since 1953, thanks to the unexpected slugging of Hector Lopez.

After hitting only four home runs in 65 games, Lopez walloped three last night, driving in five runs and beating Washington 8-6 with a two-run shot in the 12th inning.

The Yankees, who open a three-game set at Kansas City tonight with a 7½-game lead over the second-place A's, defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-3 yesterday. Southpaw Jack Harshman blanked Detroit on five hits for a 2-0 Baltimore victory. And Boston defeated Cleveland 2-1 shortly before the Indians fired Manager Bob by Bragan and hired Joe Gordon.

In the National League, last-place Los Angeles scored a 4-2 decision over the Milwaukee Braves. Second-place St. Louis beat Pittsburgh 6-2 and San Francisco belted Cincinnati 5-1.

The A's riding their longest string since winning seven in a row in '33 back in Philadelphia, also collected two big runs on a triple by Bob Cerv, Roy Sievers drove in four Senators runs with his 14th and 15th homers.

Cerv's triple helped the A's tie it 6-6 with four runs in the eighth, capped by Lopez's second homer. Then Hector put it away after a single by Preston Ward in the 12th against losing reliever Vito Valentini (1-1). Murry Dickson won his sixth in relief.

The Yankees, held to one hit for five innings, handed Dick Donovan his eighth defeat with three runs in the sixth, cracking a 1-1 tie on a low-run single by first baseman Bill Skowron. Norm Siebern's fourth homer clinched it in the eighth for Johnny Kucks.

Williams broke up a 1-1 tie with his ninth home run in the ninth as relief ace Ike DeLoach, making his first start since last August, outdueled Cal McLish (3-5) with a five-hitter.

Harshman, now 6-6, gave up three doubles but seldom was in trouble while gaining his second 1957 shutout, both over Detroit and Billy Hoelt. A walk, Dick Williams's single and a sacrifice fly from Gus Triandos gave Harshman the run he needed in the first inning. Bob Boyd homered for the other run.

Women Golfers In Tournament Have Trouble

DETROIT (AP)—The women golfers are having trouble in their National Open, too.

Two weeks ago their male counterparts had to battle Tulsa's oppressive heat and the rugged Southern Hills golf course.

When the ladies started their U.S. Open Thursday, high winds swirled over the hilly acres at Forest Lake Country Club and the girls fought a losing battle against par.

Not one of the 54 competitors was able to equal the 37-36-73 par. The one-over-par 74 posted by tall Mickey Wright of Chula Vista, Calif., was good for a first round lead of one stroke.

Veteran Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill. claims she always has trouble in the first round of the Open, but her opening round 78 left her undismayed.

Trailing Miss Wright going into today's second round were Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., Betty Jameson of San Antonio, and Jackie Pung of Hawaii. Each had 75.

Alice Bauer and her sister, Marlene Bauer Haggie, were two strokes off the pace at 76. Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich., was penalized two strokes for showing up late at the first tee and took an 81.

After today's second round, the field will be cut and the low 40 scorers will make two trips over the 6,240-yard layout in Saturday's windup.

Big Eight Champion Scores Biggest Upset

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Mike Poinsner, Oklahoma State's Big Eight conference champion, scored the biggest upset yesterday in the Missouri Valley tennis tournament.

Poinsner defeated 6th-seeded Alphonse Ochao, Mexico City, 6-2, 4-6, 7-5, to reach the quarter-finals. Poinsner is a native of Kansas City, Kan.

Poinsner is matched against 4th-seeded John Powless, Florida, Ill., in the quarter-finals.

Other seeded players easily advanced without losing a set yesterday.

Tut Bartzan of Dallas, the top man, brushed off two Kansas City opponents. David Harum, Coral Gables, Fla., and Esteban Reyes of Mexico City, rated second and third, each knocked off a Kansas Citian.

Gordon Takes Manager Job With Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—Joe Gordon, former star second baseman for the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians, flew here today to take over as manager of the Indians for tonight's game with Baltimore.

General Manager Frank Lane announced last night he had fired Bobby Bragan and hired Gordon for the rest of this season and for 1959.

"We are making this change with the hope that there will be a general improvement in the club," he explained.

Gordon, 43, an insurance salesman in Sacramento, Calif., since he left baseball after piloting San Francisco to a Pacific Coast League pennant last year, said he was "excited and thrilled" to take the job.

Lane said the decision to fire Bragan was made in the last few days and resulted from a "succession of little things."

He refused to pinpoint any one thing that led to the change, but he has been openly critical of Bragan's platooning, his constant efforts to find a place for rookie outfielder Gary Geiger in the lineup and his handling of some pitchers.

Relations of Mexico, U. S. in Good Shape

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States may be under fire elsewhere in Latin America, but the head of Mexico's consular service says relations between this nation and her big northern neighbor were never better. Nieto said Mexico and the United States are working together closer than ever before and collaboration is at an all-time peak. Ambulance Serv. TA 6-8000

Russian Resolution
Torn Down by Council

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A Russian-backed resolution aimed at ending U.S. nuclear tests in the Pacific was turned down yesterday by the Trusteeship Council, which oversees American administration of the island testing grounds. The Soviet Union joined with three neutral nations — Burma, India and the United Arab Republic — in supporting an Indian resolution to end nuclear tests in, or around, any trust territory. It lost 7-4. India claimed the United States was staging tests in the Marshalls because it preferred to risk Asian lives rather than those of Americans. Unlike the Gregorian calendar, a Chinese year lasts only 360 days.

Fight to Save Life Of Roberta Linn

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Three more diagnosticians have been called in by physicians fighting to save the life of singer Roberta Linn.

She is in critical condition at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. Six doctors already are working on her case.

Her illness began as bronchial pneumonia, then spread as a general infection. Doctors said antibiotics have not seemed to halt the infection, which is seriously affecting her respiratory tract. She is in an oxygen tent.

Miss Linn, 27, was bandleader Lawrence Welk's first TV Champagne Lady.

GOP Presses For Extension Of Farm Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans pressed today for emergency extension of expiring farm laws after House defeat of a catch-all farm bill.

With big city Democrats lining up with Republicans, the House yesterday refused to consider a Democratic-backed omnibus measure which its critics caustically labeled a bread tax act.

The 214-171 vote which killed the bill came on what usually is a routinely accepted motion to clear a measure for floor consideration. The complex, many-featured bill included proposals for new three-year price support and control programs for wheat, cotton, rice, feed grains and milk.

The wheat and milk programs would have provided new ways of financing controls. Opponents said the cost of these would be passed on to consumers.

The House action was an impressive victory for Secretary of Agriculture Benson, whose opposition was credited with lending weight to the stunning defeat dealt House farm bloc members seeking new agriculture legislation.

Of the House action, Benson declared: "I regard the decisive defeat of this omnibus bill as a vote of confidence in American agriculture and in the efforts of those who are dedicated to returning it to a sound basis. I sincerely congratulate the members of the House for this act of statesmanship."

House Republicans, meanwhile, organized an effort to continue for another year administration-backed laws which expire next Tuesday unless Congress votes to continue them. They had Democratic support as well.

Extension of both the school milk program and the program of farm surplus disposal through foreign sales and aid had been provided in the omnibus bill.

The Senate has passed separate legislation extending both programs. It also adopted an emergency resolution to extend the school milk program for 60 days until Aug. 31.

House Republicans were expected to follow Benson's lead in urging passage of proposed legislation for cotton, corn and rice and to extend the National Wool Act through 1961. Benson has endorsed generally a bill which the Senate Agriculture Committee approved this week to do these things.

Fire Buffers Meet For Big Convention

BALTIMORE (AP) — If Baltimore should have a multi-alarm blaze in the next three days, some 150 visitors would be able to show their stuff.

They're here for the sixth annual convention of the International Fire Buff Assn. The organization of fire engine chasers claims about 3,050 members in the United States, England and Canada.

Most of the clubs operate mobile canteens which follow fire trucks to keep fire fighters supplied with hot coffee and cigarettes. Many of the buffs are volunteer firemen or Civil Defense auxiliary firemen.

If they need dry clothes or a change of boots, we get them," said Bob Wren, international president of the organization who has been a member of Cincinnati's Box 13 Assn. since 1935.

Wheat Queen to Say: 'Let Them Eat Cake'

LOCKWOOD, Mo. (AP) — In Lockwood, too, the queen's decree will be: "Let them eat cake."

This town of 900 will choose its Queen of Wheat Saturday night and cake probably will be the deciding point.

Seventeen organizations have nominated queens.

Anyone who brings a cake to town Saturday night can cast 100 votes.

What happens to the cakes? They will be disposed in a cake-walk. Anyone who buys a ticket for the cakewalk, price 10 cents, can cast 10 votes.

UAW, Big Three Still Split On Wage Agreements

DETROIT (AP)—The Big Three car makers and the United Auto Workers appeared today to be farther apart in their efforts to reach a new agreement on wages than they were at the start of negotiations three months ago.

The 1955 contracts expired Memorial Day weekend and for the past month members of the union have been working without contracts at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler plants.

The union held bargaining sessions with all three companies yesterday but no progress was reported. Company negotiators gave no indication they were ready to make a new offer.

The UAW rejected the companies original proposals to extend the wage formula of the 1955 contracts for two years. These proposals were withdrawn on expiration of the old contracts.

The union is preparing for a showdown later this summer when the companies start production of 1959 models. It reported yesterday that 65 of its 231 locals in Big Three plants have completed votes authorizing strike action whenever UAW President Walter P. Reuther decides on it. The vote so far was given as 77,664 in favor of striking and 5,853 opposed.

Reuther enforced a no-strike policy on union members. Production was reported back to normal yesterday at the Chrysler missile plant near Detroit. Reuther squelched a three-day wild-cat strike at the plant by threatening to place an administrator over Local 1245. The local represents 450 of the 8,500 employees at the plant.

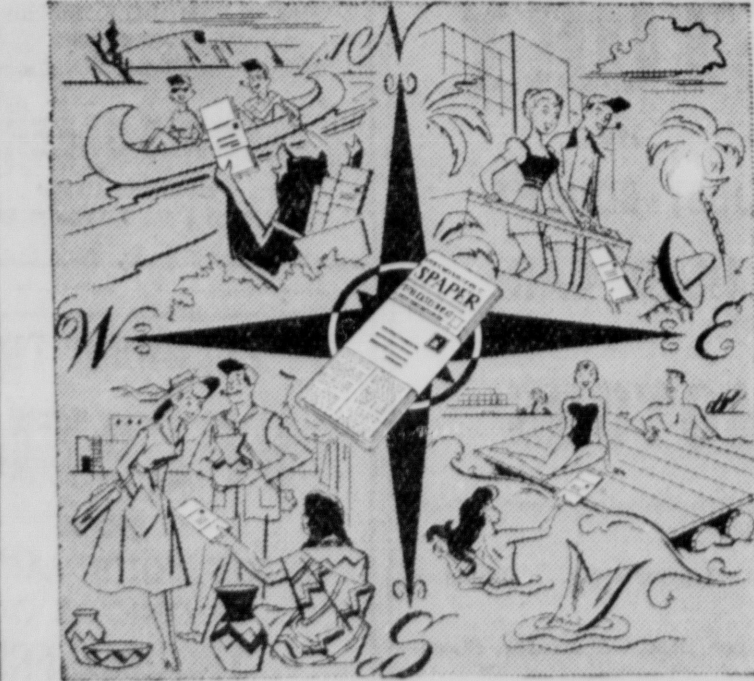

Asks Court to Clarify Contract With Actor

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Paramount Pictures Corp. wants U.S. District Court to clarify its contract problems with William Holden.

Paramount filed suit yesterday. It asked that Holden be required to resume work for Paramount according to an oral agreement it said the actor made in November 1956. No damages were asked.

Holden told Paramount earlier this year that he didn't consider that the studio held a contract for his services, and said he wouldn't work on films planned for him at Paramount.

Balloon Sent Up at Moberly To Study Rays

MOBERLY, Mo. (AP)—A balloon packing 200 pounds of scientific recording and measuring equipment for the study of cosmic rays was successfully launched at dawn today.

A crowd of about 150 persons was on hand to view the launching at Omar N. Bradley Airport. Weather conditions were described as almost perfect with westerly winds of about 3 miles an hour. The balloon was reported drifting upward at the rate of about 800 feet a minute.

The cosmic testing program is under the direction of Dr. Frank McDonald, University of Iowa physicist.

Dr. McDonald said the balloon should reach its 22 mile limit (118,000 feet) in about two hours.

The scientists hope to maintain the balloon at that height for about 8-hours before triggering a mechanism to parachute the instruments back to earth.

Information gathered from the study will be made available to the International Geophysical Year Committee.

The Cosmic Ray project is sponsored by the Office of Naval Research.

Technicians from Raven Industries, Inc., Sioux Falls, S. D., which made the balloon and some of its equipment, supervised the launching.

Husband of Woman Held in Bogus Check Case Surrenders Self

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Clarence Adams surrendered to police last night, "to protect my old lady and kids."

The 24-year-old Adams has been sought since Monday when his 18-year-old wife, Barbara Ann, was arrested on charges of passing bad checks.

The couple's three sons, left in a nursery by Mrs. Adams shortly before her arrest, are in the custody of an uncle. They are Jerry, 1½; Jimmy, 2½, and Eddie, 6 months. Mrs. Adams also is expecting another child.

Adams told officers he had been living in a hillside hole east of the Chestnut Avenue Trafficway near Independence Boulevard. He said he covered the hole with boards as protection from the weather.

"I'd walk downtown and bum nickels and dimes," police quoted Adams as saying, "that would keep me in food and cigarettes."

Mrs. Adams has admitted cashing $208 in fraudulent checks. Officers said the checks were signed by Adams.

Adams told police that unless his wife receives probation, "I'll give them (authorities) a hard time. I'll plead not guilty and they'll have to get a jury and all that and waste a lot of time with me."

Woman Says She, Two Others Dried, Ironed $35,000 Stolen Money

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Mrs. George Myers yesterday said she and two other women dried and ironed $35,000 in bills stolen from the First State Bank of Arma, Kan. She said the job took eight hours.

She testified at a preliminary hearing for Mrs. Linda Ann Young, 18, of Kansas City, who was bound over to federal court on charges of receiving and possessing some of the stolen money.

Mrs. Myers, 28, said five men, carrying 10 bags of water-soaked money, came to her rented house in Overland Park, a suburb of Kansas City, on the night of May 1. She said Mrs. Young arrived later and helped with the money-drying. She said Mrs. Dorothy Stamper, 21, of Olathe, Kan., also helped.

Mrs. Young's husband, Dolan Allen Young, and three other men have been sentenced to prison terms for the robbery; the case against another man still is pending.

The Lady's Money Vanished

Nevada Cowboy, Minister's Wife Add Up to an Old Story

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—This is the story of a Nevada cowboy with a yen for money and a minister's wife from Missouri with $203,000.

The romance ended with the disappearance of the cowboy — and the lady's money.

Now the cowboy is in custody in Miami, charged with interstate transportation of stolen money and a stolen car.

It started a few months ago when Mrs. Barbara F. Doubleday, 37, went to Reno for a divorce from her husband — the Rev. James A. Doubleday, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Kirkwood, Mo.

She charged mental cruelty but asked the court to award custody of two children, aged 8 and 6, to their father. No disposition has been made of the complaint.

Then she met a curly-haired, husky ranch hand — Raymond Lewis Headspeth, who didn't

Gets License With Man She Left at Church

NEW YORK (AP) — Irene Arzedi, who disappeared on her wedding day last February, took a new marriage license yesterday with the same fellow she left waiting at the church. Wedding plans were not disclosed.

Miss Arzedi, 29, disappeared Feb. 22 just five hours before her wedding to Joseph Pinto, 31, was to take place. She showed up eight days later, declaring she had become frightened and had taken a transcontinental bus trip to Los Angeles.

Defense Department Will Review Vanguard

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A Defense Department official says the Navy's Vanguard program will be reviewed. Only one of six attempts to launch the Vanguard has been successful.

Donald A. Quarles, deputy secretary of defense, said Thursday night: "This does not mean that we necessarily are planning to abandon the Vanguard program, but we will have to give the program another look to see how it all adds up."

He said in an interview that the Air Force and Army programs to launch satellites would definitely go ahead.

RUTHERFORDTON, N.C. (AP) — "I hate smoking," says the will of the late Mrs. Effie Lynch McCall, recorded by Rutherford County's clerk of court.

The executor of her will is instructed to "please see that no one has the part I've said if they smoke."

Her estate, in addition to personal effects, includes three tracts of land, more than $3,000 in U.S. government bonds, and 25 shares of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. Stock.
